

MEETING MINUTES
GRAND RIVER VALLEY ANG
June 20, 2009 – GAINES TOWNSHIP LIBRARY

Members Present: Jeannine Cella, Joanne Grabinski, Anne Lewis, Dot Messinger, Nancy Mulvihill, Dora Riemers, Gwen Spaulding, and Joyce Working.

Meeting called to order at 10:25 by Jeanne Cella.

Thank you to Betsy Redman for hosting Libby Sturdy, a gift certificate from Romence Gardens will be sent to in appreciation.

Old Business: A discussion of the Libby Sturdy class- members agreed that it was a fun, educational and relaxing class and that Libby was an excellent teacher.

Gwen and Geri had taken the Gail Sirna class and Gwen stated that it was a very advanced class.

The pilot class was brought up, no dates yet and materials on order through Peacock Alley.

The Ort Box class is scheduled for the July 18th meeting. Gwen had a finished box to show. All basting needs to be done before that date and all materials purchased.

Ellie's Place needs three more signs they are currently being worked on by group members.

New Business: The newsletter will go to an every other month for a full newsletter; any news in between the full editions will be communicated via e-mail or phone calls.

Dot has a source for covers for the magna lights, if interested a yard of a light weight quilted material is needed for a three piece set. She also had an Anne Strite Kurz appliqué book to show.

Treasurer's Report: We currently have $1618.91 in our checking account. The CD was up for renewal and the interest rate was minimal so it was cashed in, we can reinvest monies at a later date if desired.

Meeting adjourned.

Finished Projects: Jeannine Cella brought her framed 16 Men on a Deadman's Ship, Shopping Women –also framed ,6 Halloween Ornaments and a frame weight.